OELRICHS CAN'T ACT FOR WIFE

She and Her Sister, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, Jr., Both With draw the Power of Attorney He Held for Them in California

BOTH ARE DAUGHTERS OF LATE SENATOR FAIR.

Society Stirred by Action, but Does Not Expect Any Further Move Because Mrs. Oelrichs Is a Catholic.

Society is talking of nothing to-day but the action of Mrs. Hermann Oelrichs in formally revoking the power of attorney she gave her husband on April 21, 1897. No less surprising is the action of her sister, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, jr., who also has revoked a power of attorney given to Mr. Oelrichs on the

Both documents were executed in this city on Nov. 5 before a commissioner of deeds for the State of California and ere forwarded to San Francisco. That in which Mrs. Oelrichs withdraws the right of her husband to act for her in all property transactions in San Fran cisco and the State of California has already been filed in the office of the San Francisco City and County Clerk. The document signed by Mrs. Vanderbilt has not been filed.

Cause of Much Gossip. That the two sisters should simultaneously decide to take out of the hands of Hermann Oelrichs the management of their California interests conducive to gossip just now because rumors of disaffection in the Oelrichs family have been rife for some time. Mrs. Oelrichs, although she wrote not long ago to the Commissioner of Taxes that her home is in California, has been close to New York and Newport for a long time, while Mr. Oelrichs has been and is in San Francisco.

Ostensibly Mr. Oelrichs has been de oting his time in the Golden Gate city to superivising the erection of a magnificent new hotel owned by himself and his wife on Nob Hill, to be known when completed as the Fairmont. This hotel has been one of Mrs. Oelrichs's pet Dissatisfied with Work.

Originally young Mr. Vanderbilt and his wife had an interest in the property, but they sold out to Mr. Oelrichs It is known that his wife has not been stisfied with the way the work has progressed in San Francisco. Mr. Oelrichs has spent much of his time at the Bo-Club, the Poodle Dog and other Virginia City grew too small for the Fairs, so they went to San Francisco, where the three girls. Theresa, Virginia and Birdle, were educated in a convent, and the two sons, James G., jr., and Charles, were educated in the rapid life Charles, were educated in the rapid life of the fastest town on the continent. Theresa Fair made her debut in 1887, and three years later married in San Francisco Hermann Oelricia. New York agent of the North German Lloyd Steamship line, champion amateur boxer and oarsman and clever man-aboutfown. The ceremony was performed by Archbishop Riordan, as the Fairs are devout Catholics.

Her gister Virginia married W. K. devout Catholics.

Her sister Virginia married W. K. Vanderbilt, jr., four years ago. For six years past Mr Oelrichs has been the acknowledged agent of his wife and sister-in-law in all the contests growing out of the Pair millions and the littigation dollowing the death of Charles Fair in an automobile accident in France.

France.
An Evening World reporter called at the office of Col. William Jay, personal counsel for Mrs. Oelrichs, to-day. Col. Jay was not in. His partner, Flamen B. Chandler, said that he was busy on the Oelrichs matter but could say nothing about the line of action he was taking, a statement that may or may not possess significance.

Surprise in Newport.

NEWPORT, R. I., Nov. 14.—The news of the revocation of Hermann Oelrich's power of attorney for his wife and his sister-in-law, Mrs. W. K. Vanderbilt, jr., in San Francisco, was received here to-dev with expressions of surprise on all sides. No one who knows the persons interested would venture any statement as to what the action might mean. It was recalled that comment had been made in society over the protracted absence from this city of Mr. Oelrichs, though his wife has been here every season. It had been understood that the demands of business in connection with the property of which he had charge explained the situation.

The Oelrichses have one child, a boy. Mrs. Oelrichs and Mrs. Stuyvesant Fish are the recognized leaders of the younger element in society. At times they are rival leaders, but generally they get together again and work hand in hand for the amusement of their blase associates.

Mrs. Oelrichs was Theresa, the eldest daughter of James G. Fair, once United States Senator from California and millionaire many times over through the Bonanza strike of the Fair. Flood. Mackay and O'Brien combination. She was born in Virginia City, Nev., in 1857. At that time her father was a plodding miner and prospector. Five years later he made his "strike" and gold flowed to him in streams.

TO EXTEND NEUTRAL ZONE AND PROTECT RAILROAD.

Reports of Bogota Force Marching on New Republic Not Believed Here and State Department Has No Apprehension.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 14 .- The State epartment has no knowledge of the narching of an army from Colombia non the Isthmus and the officials state that were any such movement in progress it would certainly be informed by its agents in the South, the cable eing still open.

These officials scout the idea that an uch march is in progress, as the Presi lescribed to the President of Ecuador said to be marching on Panama wa nothing more than a small body of nothing more than a small body of perhaps 500 all told, who were about to embark at Buena Ventura a few days ago when they were turned back from the Isthmus by notice of the determination of the United States naval commanders to allow no landings in that quarter.

These troops cannot reach the isthmus by water, and the officials here are positive that they cannot do so by land. The character of the country is such that there is no subsistence for an army on the route of the wild mountain trails and the passages through the morasses that lie between Colombia proper and the Isthmus.

that lie between Colombia proper and the Isthmus.

Even if there were subsistence the trails are so rough that it would require many weeks or even months for even a small army to make the journey.

But there are more than physical obstacles in the way of the approach of an army upon Panama. The officials do not care to express publicly their plans, but enough has been gleaned from the instructions given to our naval commanders to make it evident that commanders to make it evident that never again will the Isthmus become the seat of warfare so long as the Inited States Government can prevent it.

The authorities have now determined to extend the lines of protection to the railroad. They will not allow hostile forces, no matter whether they are Colombian or Panama troops, to come into collision anywhere near the railroad, and to prevent such collisions it will be necessary to extend the neutral zone clear to the north and south boundaries of the Republic of Panama.

Officials here will not make such a statement publicity: they simply say: "Walt till the emergency arises."

Not the slightest apprehension is felt of any Colombian advance on Panama.
